MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

Its that time of year again. Membership renewal forms are in the November edition of "Lancashire" the society's journal. Please help to ease the workload of our membership secretary, by renewing your membership promptly. Christmas is a busy time for everyone, so do it sooner rather than later.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES

You, the members, voted to have a speaker followed by cake and mince pies. The speaker will be Mrs Sarah Greenwood talking about Christmas Cards. Tickets are £3 each including a free raffle and these will be on sale at the November meetings.

A Merry Christmas and a
Happy New Year to all our readers

VICE CHAIRMAN

David Taylor, our vice-chairman, has had to retire from the committee due to "real" work commitments. The branch would like to thank him for all the work he has done in the past years as vice-chairman, programme secretary, Christmas party organizer / caterer and all the other jobs that he has done behind the scenes to aid the smooth running of the branch. Consequently, we now have a vacancy on the committee for a vice-chairman. Volunteers to fill this vacancy should form an orderly queue in front of Jean at the next meeting. And just to remind you, we still need an editor for the Gazette.

IRISH ANCESTRY GROUP

Do you have Irish ancestors in your family tree? Are you having difficulty researching them? You can get help and advice with your research if you go to the workshop and research afternoon being held by the Irish Ancestry Group at the Straits, Oswaldtwistle (about 200 yards from Oswaldtwistle Mill) on Saturday 3rd December 2005 from 1pm – 4.30pm. Cost £1.50 including tea/coffee and biscuits. Please contact Margaret Purcell, 128 Red Bank Road, Blackpool FY2 2DA if you plan to attend. e-mail Irish@lfhhs.org.uk

OPEN DAY

The branch had another successful "Open Day" on Saturday November 12th, although it was not as busy as last year. Barnoldswick library gave us the use of two computers for the day so Mike Howarth and Bob Dodgson were kept very busy accessing 'online' databases to do searches of the census. Bob, Christine, David, Jean, John, Ken, Lynn, Margaret, Ralph, Tony, and Brenda were joined by Ada Hannam, who has extensive knowledge of the Barnoldswick area. Thanks to all who helped out at the event in whatever capacity. Thanks also to the staff at Barnoldswick library for the use of their facilities.

ATTENDANCE AT BRANCH MEETINGS – The chairman of the Society recently asked for attendance figures at our branch meeting for 2004 and 2005. The results were as follows

	Overall average	Meetings with speaker	Practical evenings	AGM (includes the committee)
2004	40	44.9	30.75	24
2005	44.1	49.9	20.3	31

PROJECTS

Work continues on several projects.

Haggate Baptist Chapel Registers for burials (1786 to 1857) and births (1762 to 1820) have now been corrected and transferred to a database from the old printed copies.

Brierfield Congregational Chapel Baptisms are now completed.

Earby Cemetery MIs were recorded by Rolls Royce FHS some time ago and these have now been checked at the cemetery and updated. The information is in the process of being transferred to a database

Burnley Cemetery Memorial Inscriptions – Checking of the 1400 MIs in the old part of the cemetery are almost complete.

Transcription of the 1901 census for Pendle District is nearing completion

Colne St Bartholomew's Church marriages and Newchurch-in-Pendle St Mary's Church, baptisms, burials and marriages are still in progress.

Trawden St Mary the Virgin Church – baptisms, burials and marriages have been transcribed and are being checked.

Thank you to all those working on projects.

Bob Ellis. Project Coordinator

LANCASHIREBMD PROJECT

The problem with uploading the Church of England marriage indexes up to 1900 onto the Internet has now been resolved. The Register Office marriages will follow shortly. A group of checkers is now visiting the new registration office in Preston to continue work on the births. It is hoped that the births for Burnley will be complete by Christmas. Births for Padiham, Pendle, Nelson, Barnoldswick and Colne will be started in the New Year. This will be followed by work on the death indexes.

STRAYS

Submitted by David Threlfall

Whilst checking and correcting transcriptions and indexes of the MIs for St Cuthbert's Parish Church, Churchtown, Southport, I have come across the following entry which may be of interest to someone in the Pendle FHS

“In loving memory of MARY BROADHURST (late of Colne) who died Sept 15th [191-]. Also of ANN LEIGH relict of late WM. LEIGH (late of Burnley) who died Sept 19th 1916.”

PROBATE INDEXES IN COLNE LIBRARY

Submitted by Jean Ingham

In this article I want to draw your attention to a little known family history resource housed in Colne library; Probate Indexes to Wills (officially known as Calendars). This index is a record of all wills proved in England and Wales since 1858.

Many family historians think that their ancestors never had enough money to leave a will and so neglect to search this source of family history. If there was a will it could prove to be a genealogical treasure chest.

Your ancestor might have always pleaded poverty and then surprised his contemporaries by leaving a small fortune in his will. Your interest in finding this document lies not just in how much money he had but in the possibility that it could just confirm a family relationship. To ensure that any bequests went to the right people precise relationships would be specified. Relatives in other parts of the country might also be mentioned.

Prior to 1858 wills were proved in an ecclesiastical court but since 1858 they have been proved in a civil court. Once the will has been authenticated in this probate court a Grant of Probate is issued so that the executors can distribute the legacies etc. Anyone can then obtain a copy of a will. It seems a little unfair that through life a person's financial affairs can be private but once they die, their will becomes a document available to public scrutiny.

A search in the Probate Indexes will indicate whether or not your ancestor actually left a will. These Indexes list all the grants of probate which have been issued since 1858. They have been compiled annually and are in alphabetical order of surname of the deceased.

The information in the indexes has varied over the years but essentially each entry will have the following: full name and address of the deceased, date of death, type of grant issued, the date of issue of the grant and at which Probate Registry, and the gross value of the estate. Extra information at some period might be the addresses of the executors and their relationship to the deceased. As in the following example from the Probate Index for 1887:-

“WILDMAN Robert 1 June.

Personal Estate £996 16s 7d

The Will with a codicil of Robert Wildman late of Colne in the County of Lancaster Bank Manager who died 4 January 1887 at Colne was proved at Lancaster by Ann Wildman of Colne Widow the Relict John Bayley Lees of Oaklands Church-lane Handsworth in the County of Stafford Iron Merchant and James Lascelles Wildman of Colne Bank Manager the Son the Executors”.

Sometimes the grim reaper caught someone without warning and the poor chap didn't have time to make his will. If the deceased did not leave a will i.e. died intestate but had above a certain amount of money or property a Grant of Administration would be issued by the Probate Court. These are also recorded in the Probate Indexes.

Entries are made in the calendar in the year in which either the grant of probate or administration was issued but this may not be the year in which the deceased died. It means that a search may have to be made one, two or even several years after the date of death.

After consulting the indexes a will or a grant of administration may be bought for £5 by applying by post to the Probate Registry in York at:-

The Postal Searches and Copies Dept, The Probate Registry, Castle Chambers, Clifford Street, York, YO1 9RG (DX720629 York 21)

(If for any reason you are unable to consult Probate Indexes, providing you definitely know the deceased's date of death and last address, you may still apply to York and the office will conduct a 3 year search)

A complete set of Calendars 1858-2004 is available for the public at First Avenue House in London, and most district Probate Registries and County Record offices have partial sets which do not cover the more recent years. Colne library is in the rare and fortunate position of having one of these partial Probate Indexes, in this case for the period 1858 – 1943. These can be searched during normal library opening hours by prior appointment. Be warned, they are quite large and weighty volumes but it does save a journey to the County Record Office in Preston. As the indexes include all grants issued throughout England and Wales, even if the will is of a butcher in Basildon, a carpenter in Caerphilly or a joiner from Jarrow it can be found right there in Colne library.

Note. Lancashire Record Office also have the later Indexes from 1943 – 1966.

SANTA WAS RAG GATHERER BENEATH THE RED ROBE

Submitted by Jean Ingham

This report in the Nelson Leader in the late 1950s reminded me that the once familiar cry of “Rag an' Bones” is no longer heard on the streets. Donkey stones were the normal payment for rags but this ragman was a bit more enterprising.

Santa Claus was fined £5 at Colne Court on Wednesday.

For this Santa – Nathaniel Wood, of Leeds – was a rag gatherer beneath his red robe and white beard.

It was disguised as Father Christmas that, according to School Attendance Officer James Dixon, of Park School House, Wood got “quite a crowd of children” gathered round him in Rutland Street on November 15th. He was, Dixon told the magistrates, handing out small pamphlets inviting them to bring rags and woollens with them when they returned to school. “It seemed to me rather a despicable trick,” he said. After lunch the witness watched from a side window and saw the children bring rags and suchlike to Wood. If they had a jar they were given goldfish; if not they were given toys such as peepscopes. Very few of the children were accompanied by adults.

Wood was summoned for distributing toys to children under the age of 14 in exchange for rags, Mr Alan Haigh saying; “There is a very real danger of spreading this disease by this practice. There is quite a good return for these rags and people can usually afford to ignore the law by giving toys worth a few pence in return for rags of considerable value. They know that the maximum fine is £5.”

It was the maximum fine which the magistrates imposed on Wood. “We are determined to stamp this sort of thing out,” said Councillor John Shepherd.

SEARCHING FOR PETER BRIANT

Submitted by Brenda I Hustler

Earlier this year I received a request, from Mary and Brian Jackson in Australia, for help in finding information on Henry JACKSON, who was born in Burnley 1805 to 1808 and was transported for seven years in 1830 for the felony of theft. Mary also asked for advice on how to find a living person, namely Peter BRIANT. Perhaps some of our members may have ideas on tracing this person.

Mary's aunt was a Nursing Sister at Berry Street Foundling Home in Melbourne, Australia. In 1937, she arranged for Mary's mother, then Miss Doreen Mandeville, to escort two-year-old Peter BRIANT to England. The pair sailed on "The Orford" on the 5th January 1937. On arrival in England, they were met by a member of the Travellers Aid Society, who took the young orphan to be cared for by grandparents. Mary has some photographs of young Peter taken on board ship during their voyage and would like to give them to Peter.

Unfortunately, Mary's mother was not given the name of the grandparents nor where they lived. A search has been made for Peter Briant on the electoral roll on 192.com and Mary has written to those found, but as yet has had no reply. The Travellers Aid Society will not give her any information because she is not a relative and the Salvation Army say they are unable to help.

Orphan Peter Briant sailed to England from Australia in 1937 at the age of two.

Please contact me if you have any ideas, e-mail secretary@lfhhs-pendleandburnley.org.uk or write to Mary Jackson, 4-111 Through Road, Camberwell 3124, Victoria Australia.

ELECTORAL REGISTERS

Proposed changes to the Representation of the People Regulations

In 2002, the Government introduced new regulations concerning access to and the supply and sale of Electoral Registers. This caused some confusion at the time in Library and archives services and also resulted in the withdrawal of the full version of the Electoral Registers from the shelves at the FRC. Under the 2002 regulations, two versions of the Electoral Registers have been produced annually - a full version and an edited version. The full version contains the names of all electors in every Parliamentary constituency but its distribution and usage has been restricted. The edited version, which can be purchased by anyone for any purpose, does not include the names of members of the public who choose to have their names excluded [rather like a Telephone Directory which does not include ex-Directory numbers].

The Consultation Paper, which was issued on 30th August 2005, proposes limited changes to the 2002 Regulations in England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. The main proposals, as far as family historians are concerned, are:

To provide the National Library of Wales with a copy of the Full Electoral Register in the same way as the British Library and the National Library of Scotland are presently entitled. After 10 years copies of the registers may be supplied to others for research purposes.

To provide public libraries and local authority archives services with copies of the full registers if requested and to permit them to make the registers available for inspection under supervision. After 10 years copies of the registers may be supplied to others for research purposes.

To provide the General Register Office in Scotland with a copy of the full electoral register in the same way as the Office for National Statistics is presently entitled. FFHS Response to Consultation Paper can be found at: www.ffhs.org.uk/Societies/Liaison/News.htm

QUERY CORNER

BLAKEY

Geoff Carr, Darlington e-mail geoffcarr1@aol.com

Geoff's grandmother, Maggie BLAKEY was born in 1890 in Burnley. She was the daughter of Joseph BLAKEY and Ann (nee DIXON). Geoff has traced the BLAKEYs and DIXONS back to the late 17th century, living in Barrowford and Colne. Some years ago, his grandmother gave Geoff an old family photograph album but as often occurs, there were no names on the photographs. Geoff asks if anyone can recognize the people on these photographs

HALSTEAD

Marie Normansell – e-mail marienormansell@yahoo.co.uk

Marie's father Ronald HALSTEAD was born in Barrowford in 1910, but left the area in 1938. She has inherited many photographs, but as usual, there are no names on them. Can you help by identifying these young men? The two shown in full were the best friends of Ronald HALSTEAD. The one on the right is called Tom and if still alive will be about 95 years old. The other photograph is of two WW1 soldiers and it is thought that the one on the right is Varley HALSTEAD, Ronald's father but who is the one on the left. Marie has several photographs of this young man and hence thinks that he must be part of her family.

ATKINSON

John Wilson – email jwil@jwil.fsnet.co.uk

John is trying to trace some ancestors for a friend in Australia. Her Father was born in Brierfield and went to Australia when he was 15. She has never been to England, but hopes to do so in the next couple of years. John has tried to obtain a birth certificate from the GRO for Florence Atkinson born circa 1886, but they say they couldn't find it from the information given. There are two Florence ATKINSONs listed on FreeBMD as being born that year in the Burnley area but neither is the Florence whose mother is Mary.

Florence ATKINSON was born in Nelson and according to the census has siblings - Albert, Minnie & Walter. Her mother was Mary ATKINSON, born in Barrowford, (NO husband is listed so maybe she wasn't married). Florence died in December 1950 at the age of 64 and is buried at the Inghamite cemetery as Florence SOWERBY, in the same grave as her Mother (Mary ATKINSON), Grandmother (Elizabeth ATKINSON, widow of Henry), Aunt (Sarah Ann BLACKBURN formerly ATKINSON) and cousin (Ethel BLACKBURN daughter of Alfred and Sarah Ann). Florence had 13 children, including three sets of twins.

John would appreciate any help in trying to find information on this family.

WAKEFIELD and PRENDEGAST

Rita Hirst e-mail ritahirst@tiscali.co.uk

Rita's great grandfather Jesse WAKEFIELD came to Burnley, from Leicestershire in the early 1870s. Jesse was married 3 times. His first marriage was to Kate McGRATH at Ramsbottom in 1873. His second marriage was to a widow, Alice DUGDALE nee PARBOLD, at Holy Trinity Church, Burnley in 1879 and finally he married Ellen McCOY nee Murray at Turf Moor RC Church (St Mary's RC Church) in 1887.

Rita would like to make contact with any descendants of David and Hannah WAKEFIELD, the children of his first marriage. David WAKEFIELD married Elizabeth BAMBER in 1898 and in 1901 he was still living in Burnley aged 22. Hannah WAKEFIELD married Richard HACKING in 1899 and in 1901 she was living at Padiham. Rita has a photograph of Hannah and Richard and a fragment of a letter (photocopied), which Hannah sent to her father in 1898. Rita will be happy to supply details of the WAKEFIELD family back to 1710 and also of the McGRATH family back to Ireland. Full details of this family appeared on the Rossendale branch website entitled "Mine, thine and ours" in the January 2004 newsletter.

Rossendale website <http://www.rossendale-fhhs.fsnet.co.uk>

PRENDEGAST

Rita has letters from her former mother in law who was born in 1910. In one of them she states that her father John William PRENDERGAST died in November 1917 (he was in the Accrington Pals). At that time she was living in Hapton. She says that 6 weeks later her little brother was pushed into the river and drowned. Rita asks which newspaper would have reported this.

Her other research interests are HIRST c1810 - Winewall, HIRST 1830 + Burnley, PRENDERGAST - Oswaldtwistle, Hapton, Burnley and SWIFT - Burnley

SHACKLETON

Mr J Shackleton, Nash Court, Marnhull, Dorset, DT10 1JZ

Does anyone have Jonathan SHACKLETON in their ancestry – Jonathan SHACKLETON was listed in the 1848 and 1850 Barrett's Directory in Colne and Little Marsden respectively, as a "Manufacturer of Moulin de laines". He and his siblings were born in Queensbury, Yorkshire. Jonathan and his brothers George and Job were all married at Colne St Bartholomew's Church in 1850, 1844 and 1845, respectively. The family are not listed in the 1841 or 1851 census for Pendle. In later census, Jonathan is found in Glasgow, George in Sunderland, Job in Burslem, Staffs then later in Oldham and Absolom is found in London. In later censuses, all were listed as Confectioners.

HAWKERS - the occupation

Jem Dixon e-mail JemD@skyview.demon.co.uk

Jem's great, great, great Grandfather is listed in the 1871 census as a licensed hawker living in Burnley. Does anyone know if there are any existing records that Jem could search which might help him find out what his ancestor used to sell? Jem currently lives in London, so wants to have a good idea of where he needs to go for research.

CORCORAN, HEATON, McDERMOTT, MUSCHAMP, RILEY, SMITH, SMYTH.

Sandra Ban, 42 Tyrell St, Simcoe, ON. Canada N3Y 2H4

These names are in Sandra's family. If you recognize any of them, Sandra would be pleased to hear from you.

James SMITH (SMYTH) was born 21st November 1882 at 3 Smiths Yard, Penny Street, Lancaster. His parents were William SMITH and Ellen CORCORAN and he had brothers Michael, William and Thomas, all of whom were born in Ireland. The family had moved to Colne by 1891. Rudith MUSCHAMP McDERMOTT SMITH was born in 1887 in Colne and moved to Simcoe, ONT, CANADA in 1924. The following was found in Rudith's address book. Mrs Ann HEATON, Favourdale, Byron Rd, Colne, Lancs. Sandra thinks that she might be the mother of Brian HEATON who could still be living in this area and she would like him to get in touch with her.
